LB 283

what your amendment does, what AM2105 does?

SENATOR TYSON: It moves the effective date of LB 283 from July the 1st to October the 1st.

SENATOR BOURNE: Okay. Does it have...Senator Landis talked about how it had to do with an alcohol tax.

SENATOR TYSON: Yes. In this...in my particular instance, on beer.

SENATOR BOURNE: And this is a...your amendment, AM2105, is an amendment to the E & R amendment, AM7140?

SENATOR TYSON: Yes.

SENATOR BOURNE: Okay. I...maybe I need to visit with you off the microphone. Because as I track your amendment, it appears that we're amending the section regarding an inheritance tax for deceased...starting on page 3, in line 12. And again, maybe I'm reading this wrong. But it says, "For decedents dying on or after January 1, 2003, and before July 1, 2003," and you want to strike "July" and add "October."

SENATOR TYSON: Well, Senator Bourne, this is my amendment, but I didn't prepare it. I am assuming that if there is an error there, it was something that was overlooked inadvertently in making it up.

SENATOR BOURNE: Okay. Thank you, Senator Tyson. Again, I'm just trying to clarify. Because I heard you get up and talk about the liquor tax, delaying the liquor tax, and then Senator Landis reiterated that, and then I'm trying to track the amendment in the E & R amendment, and it appears to amend the inheritance tax portion. But let me look at it again, and perhaps I'll talk with you off the microphone. Thank you.

SPEAKER BROMM: Thank you, Senator Bourne. There are no further lights on, Senator Tyson. You'd be recognized to close on your amendment.
